Last week we had the prayer services for the beginning of the school year. Children from St. Cronan's Junior School did their traditional Thanksgiving Food Drive and even in these strange times their generosity was great to see.

The children in the Senior School reflected on what one gift they needed to get through this school year and the top three were friendship, courage and a cure for the corona virus.

In the absence of Missallettes, you might like to consider getting a Sunday Missal which has the Bible Readings used at Mass and the Order of Mass itself. The new liturgical year begins on Sunday, November 29th so this is the perfect time to order your Missal. You can order your Missal through the Parish Office and it will be available for collection in the week leading up to November 29th.

There are two types of Missal on offer:

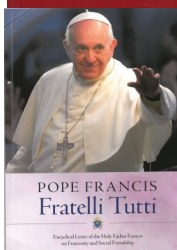

The Saint Paul Sunday Missal is a popular pocket sized book in two-colour format. The annual Missal is for 2021 only and contains the New Order of Mass, with all prayers and Scripture readings for every Sunday of the Year in calendar sequence. It also includes the complete Easter Liturgy and a treasury of prayers. It is priced at €7.95. The Glenstal Sunday Missal covers the three liturgical years, containing all readings, along with personal pieces of reflection and meditation from the Glenstal monks, as well as the Order of Mass. It is priced at €9.95.

If you attend Mass daily, you might like to order Magnificat. This beautiful little booklet has the Mass readings for every day of the month, as well as reflections on Saints and Feasts of the Day. It can be ordered at www.irishcatholic.com. Copies of Pope Francis's latest Encyclical Letter "Fratelli Tutti" are also available at a cost of €5.00.

Act of Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
