

Gospel Guide

May 10th, 2020

This weekend is the Fifth Sunday of Easter.
This means that we are still celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead.

Just as we have months and seasons of the year, the Church year is divided into SEASONS as part of the LITURGICAL YEAR.

Because it is a happy time, the priest wears white or gold VESTMENTS. This is what we call the clothes he wears at Mass
