Today is World Mission Sunday!

World Mission Sunday

One Day October 21, 2018

One Body In Christ

One Church Together in Mission

Mission at the heart of the Christian Faith

Today we come together for a truly incredible celebration of solidarity and unity within our Church - World Mission Sunday! Today, every single parish worldwide - and YOU - share what you can so the life-transforming work of missionaries overseas can continue. Today, through your prayers and contributions, you are fully appreciating the dedication of our missionaries who live and work in communities that are struggling and often war-torn.

World Mission Sunday is coordinated by 'World Missions Ireland', originally known as the Pontifical Mission Societies and the Church's official charity for overseas mission. It is part of a worldwide network of over 120 charities. Many of the international offices go by the name 'Missio'. World Missions Ireland and their fellow charities ensure that today's contributions are distributed justly to where the need is greatest within our Universal Church.

Today, your prayers and generosity are helping spread the peace and love of Christ. If you have already given, we send our heartfelt thanks. If you have yet to give, please dig a little deeper and share what you can. To donate €4.00 you can text the word 'Mission' to 50300. (Texts cost €4. World Missions Ireland will receive a minimum of €3.60. Service Provider LikeCharity. Helpline 076 680 5278. Republic of Ireland only) Or call us Monday - Friday on 01 497 2035 to donate over the phone.

New Saints!

On Sunday, October 15th, seven new saints were canonized in Rome by Pope Francis. While many of us know the stories of Pope Paul and Archbishop Romero, each of these saints offers a model of how to live a Christian and life. During the Mass, Pope Francis said that "All these saints, in different contexts," put the Gospel "into practice in their lives, without lukewarmness, without calculation, with the passion to risk everything and to leave it all behind"

Bottom row: St. Óscar Romero, St. Nazzaria Ignacia de Santa Teresa de Jesús March Mesa and St. Vincenzo Romano;

Top row: St. Francesco Spinelli, St. Nunzio Sulprizio, St. Maria Katharina Kasper & Pope St. Paul VI

Saints of God, Pray for us

During the week, two listening sessions were held with Parishioners in response to the letter from Archbishop Martin following the World Meeting of Families. There was a good attendance at both gatherings where we concentrated on two questions asked by the Archbishop—Why are we no longer captivating so many of our young people for the message of Jesus Christ? Which models of pastoral activity and reflection are most likely to win the hearts of young people for the message of Jesus?

These are big questions and as was said at the gatherings, this listening process is not an end in itself but a beginning. It provides us with the opportunity to look at the present situation and plan for the future. The Parish Pastoral Council will reflect what came up at the meetings and look at where we might go from here, and how we can invite all parishioners to be part of that process.

Many thanks to all who came along and took part.

Our Mass for remembering those who have died in the past year will take place on Saturday, November 10th at the 6.30pm Mass.

A member of the Funeral Team will call to the families who have had a bereavement since last November. If you would like to remember a loved one who was buried elsewhere, you can write their name into the Book of

Remembrance in the Sacred Space

The Altar list of the Dead envelopes are ready in the Pastoral Centre for collection by those who distribute them. They can be collected any morning this week.

When you have filled in your List, you can return the Envelope to any of the white postboxes in the Church.

This weekend, the Annual Harvest Festival takes place at all Masses. If you have not had a chance to leave in a donation for our local Crosscare Food Bank, you can do so up until after the 10am Mass on Wednesday morning. The Foodbank provides a vital service in the local Community and all donations are gratefully accepted.

Make a Difference

Next Week!

Following on from the success of MAD Sunday over the last 2 years in the Combined Catholic Parishes of Clondalkin, we are inviting everyone to get involved in
'MAD Sunday 2018' - on Sunday 28th October 2018. On this day, we hear in the Gospel: Then Jesus said to him,
"What do you want me to do for you?" (Mark 10:46-52).

Make a Difference (MAD) Sunday is an open invitation to everyone, to encourage all to make a conscious effort to do one simple thing to help another and share it: to help, inspire, give hope and encourage others! It's a day on which we are encouraging young and not so young, groups or individuals, parents and children, clubs and societies, families and friends, politicians and teachers to look out for others and make a small difference in their home, community, school, parish, etc. To consciously do at least one simple act of kindness and then share it and/or pass it on. You can come together as a group to plan and do something, or just do something on your own.

Big or small - it's up to you!
Be creative, get involved, do something and you can even share it on social media: #MadSunday These can be large or small, individual or group acts. They don't have to be complex. Just encourage all to participate and be creative.

Don't forget to share what you have done and inspire others through local parish websites, social media and Diocesan social network pages. A load of free resources for schools, youth groups and families can be viewed and downloaded from www.clondalkinparish.com.
